

What type of insulation is used in the outside walls of ?

Select all that apply

- Fibre insulation - glass or mineral wool
 - Fibre insulation - wood or sheep wool
 - Foil bubble or multifoil insulation
 - Phenolic foam
 - Polystyrene insulation - expanded polystyrene (EPS) or extruded polystyrene (XPS)
 - Polyurethane (PUR) or polyisocyanurate (PIR or ISO)
 - Other
- or
- None

Save and continue

Save and come back later

Building works since was originally built

This is not a complete list. It includes only the building works we need to know about. You will have needed a building control application to carry out any of these building works.

Building works

Select all that apply (even if there has only been a partial change)

- Asbestos removal and remediation on multiple floors
 - Balconies added
 - Changes in number of residential units
 - Changes in number or location of staircase cores
 - Changes to windows
 - Complete rewiring of buildings or floors
 - Floors added
 - Floors removed
 - Installation, replacement or removal of active or passive fire systems
 - Installation, replacement or removal of emergency or other lighting
 - Installation, replacement or removal of cold water systems in multiple residential units
 - Installation, replacement or removal of heating or hot water system in multiple residential units
 - Installation, replacement or removal of gas supply to building
 - Reinforcement works to large panel system structure
 - Work connected to external walls
Includes replacement of cavity barriers, insulation or cladding (like ACM).
 - Other structural enhancement or modification
Only include building works that needed a building control application.
- or
- None of these
- or
- Not known

Save and continue

Save and come back later

